'Despicable' hit-and-run driver jailed

ADAM CARE
@AdamCareCN

A HAVERHILL driver who crushed the legs of two footballers in a hit-and-run accident has been jailed for 40 months.

Jan Adamec, of Shetland Road, was driving over the speed limit without headlights when he hit Shaun Whiter and Joey Abbs, who were changing a tyre by the side of the road at around 11pm on July 1.

Despite them both having switched on the hazard lights on their cars, wearing high-vis jackets and carrying torches, Adamec, a Czech national with British citizenship, smashed into them as they worked at the back of Mr Abbs' car on Dullingham Road, near Newmarket.

Adamec was well aware he had hit someone, but he then reversed and drove off, leaving the pair bleeding in the road.

Prosecutor Martin Mulgrew told Cambridge Crown Court on Friday that witnesses described seeing Adamec's Ford Focus "veering a number of times over the road", almost colliding with another vehicle as it overtook at speed.

Passing sentence, Judge Jonathan Haworth described

Have your say at cambridge-news.co.uk/haverhill

Adamec's actions as "despicable".

Mr Whiter, 27, a centre-midfielder at Newmarket Town Football Club, had both his legs amputated below the knee following the crash.

Mr Abbs, 31, who plays for Soham Town Rangers, also suffered severe leg injuries.

The court heard of the physical and emotional toll on both men.

Mr Whiter described breaking down in tears after the doctor told him his legs would need to be amputated and said he still has nightmares about the crash.

He said: "I cannot understand why Mr Adamec did not stop to help me, or have the moral decency to call the emergency services."

Mr Abbs added: "Who would do this and not stop to help, who would leave us to die?"

Following a major police appeal, a neighbour spotted a severely damaged car matching their description parked outside Adamec's Haverhill

LAUNCH: Representatives from West Suffolk councils, West Suffolk College, Greater Cambridge Greater Peterborough LEP, Menta and Bury St Edmunds Chamber of Commerce launch the new branding

New look for region's business fair

HAVERHILL businesspeople are invited to join companies from across West Suffolk at an event to promote the region's commerce.

An updated logo has been created for the West Suffolk Business Fair in the run-up to the annual event.

Leader of St Edmundsbury

Borough Council John Griffiths said: "The festival has always had a regional appeal, and we want the new logo to further highlight West Suffolk as a place to do business. With so many of the events now being held at venues across the two districts and with partners including MENTA, the Chamber of Commerce and the LEPs all involved, we felt the time was right to acknowledge this with a new branding for the business festival."

It will run from October 4 to 14 and details are online at businessfestival.org

HEALTH

Hope of talks with minister

HAVERHILL councillors are set to meet Health Minister Jeremy Hunt to discuss the state of the area's healthcare.

The idea for the meeting came about after the Mayor of Haverhill David Roach contacted MP Matthew Hancock when proposals for Suffolk health cuts were put forward earlier this year.

The cuts, proposed by the Ipswich and East Suffolk and the West Suffolk Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCGs), would see services for marginalised and vulnerable adults (MVA) moved to Ipswich. The number of rounds of IVF treatments provided for a couple on the

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

NHS would also be reduced to either one or none.

Cllr Roach said that the MVA cuts would affect vulnerable Haverhill people who were unlikely to have their own transport.

"It's nonsensical for it to be in Ipswich," he said.

No date has been set for the meeting, and Cllr Roach hopes to discuss the state of healthcare in Haverhill more broadly. Earlier this year hundreds of residents signed a petition calling for better access to GP appointments.

Mr Hancock said: "I am seeking a meeting with Jeremy Hunt, to discuss the future of primary care in Haverhill with a small delegation from the area. I understand the concerns from members of the community about how we can improve healthcare provision in Haverhill and, as always, will do my best to make sure those concerns are given a voice."

A spokesperson for the CCGs said they welcomed this initiative by Haverhill councillors and it was important the challenges facing the NHS were discussed.

Olly cheers on team at town game

SINGER Olly Murs wasn't much of a Troublemaker on Tuesday night as he charmed fans at a Haverhill football ground.

The X Factor star was visiting Haverhill Community Sports Association (HCSA) alongside Coggleshall Town FC, who were taking on Haverhill Borough in their first game on a renovated pitch.

The singer occasionally plays for Coggleshall but on Tuesday was cheering them on from the dug-out area where he was sitting with coaches for extra privacy.

But he was happy to meet and greet fans and take selfies with them.

HCSA's facilities manager Peter Betts said: "He was a really nice, pleasant guy. I couldn't speak any more highly of him."

"It would be quite easy to get frustrated when you have people badgering you for photographs, but he was really polite and professional."

Mr Betts said that fans turned out to HCSA's ground the New Croft in Chalkstone Way to see the singer – but it was a great chance for the association to show off its recent £700,000 revamp.

CRIME

Prison jeans put up for illegal sale

PRISON jeans manufactured at a jail near Haverhill have been put up for sale online illegally.

The jeans, which were produced at HMP Highpoint in Stradishall, were put up for sale on auction site eBay.

The trousers were given to prisoners at HMP Durham to wear, but they remained the property of the prison service.

This is the case for all prison jeans and means it is against the law to steal or sell them.

But this pair was put on sale for £30 – plus £4.99 for two-day delivery by courier.

The listing describes the jeans as "Durham HMP jeans Exc cond 36" waist".

The seller, delboy79uk, wrote underneath: "You won't be disappointed. Nice pair of Genuine Durham HMP Jeans. Any Q's just ask thanks."

A photograph of the jeans' label shows they were manufactured at HMP Highpoint.

A Prison Service spokesman said: "It is against the law to steal or sell prison property. We are looking into this case and will take the appropriate action."

Last Wednesday the listing for the jeans was ended, but it can still be viewed.

COMMUNITY

HMO problems under spotlight

PROBLEMS with multiple-occupancy houses in Haverhill are being tackled by a community task group.

There are hotspots of crime and anti-social behaviour around certain houses of multiple occupancy (HMOs) in Haverhill, according to both analytical and anecdotal evidence, the town's police inspector Danny Cooper said at a board meeting of ONE Haverhill yesterday.

Insp Cooper, who is a member of the community partnership's crime and anti-social behaviour task group, spoke about the progress the group had made tackling those hotspots.

He said a meeting had been arranged at Haverhill's police station with a landlord of HMO properties in Haverhill as well as a housing officer and representative from West Suffolk Councils.

"That was actually quite positive," he said.

Insp Cooper said the housing provider told him they were having trouble getting honest information about some of their clients before housing them.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

Insp Cooper said members of the task group would be writing to agencies that refer individuals to Haverhill housing providers emphasising the importance of clear information, as well as writing to the probation service with a similar message.

He said the housing provider had told him they would be putting up posters in their houses to make house rules clear, with a view to reducing anti-social behaviour.

Town councillor Pat Hanlon said: "It's really good to listen to this because quite a lot of people have come up to me saying the problems they have with HMOs – shouting and screaming at two o'clock in the morning."

Insp Cooper said the task group would be looking at ways ONE Haverhill could provide support for people with chaotic lifestyles who live in HMOs.

Philip Sullivan of Haverbury Housing Partnership said: "It's very positive the steps you are taking. The issue has an impact on the community."

"These individuals do need somewhere to live, it's just this isn't suitable accommodation. Having housing options is really important – somewhere they are not causing problems with neighbours but they have got a roof over their head and have the support they need."

New chair of ONE Haverhill John Mayhew said after the meeting that improving the HMO situation was an issue he was keen to see tackled. "It's obvious that we need to be looking for a resource in Haverhill for people who are homeless, people who have come out of prisons," he said.

FAMILY: Tor and Colin Copeland with their daughter Maddison, who was born eight-and-a-half-weeks early

COMMUNITY

Mum holds charity push

A MUM is organising a buggy walk to raise money for the charity that supported her when her baby was premature.

Haverhill resident Tor Copeland, 31, gave birth to baby Maddison eight-and-a-half weeks early last March.

"She was very tiny," said Tor. "She was on breathing apparatus for a day and then she was in an incubator. We couldn't hold her for five days after she was born, which was awful."

Maddison had to be fed through a tube for the first two months of her life.

She had issues putting on weight and had to go back into hospital when she went down to just three pounds.

But at nearly 18 months old, Maddison's now a healthy toddler.

The charity that supported Tor and her husband, Colin, was Bliss, which was set up to support sick and premature babies and their families.

Tor said: "Without them I wouldn't have coped with her being so early. They were just amazing."

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

Now Maddison is doing well, Tor has decided to organise a 5k buggy walk around Haverhill to raise money and awareness for Bliss.

"We're just trying to get as many people as possible to join in with us – the more the merrier," said Tor.

Although the event is described as a "buggy walk", buggies are not a requirement – families with older children or adults without children are just as welcome.

The event will have a theme of "Little Heroes" and dressing up is optional.

Walkers will meet at 1.30pm on Sunday, September 25, outside Haverhill Leisure Centre in the town's Ehringshausen Way.

To make a donation to Bliss, you can either fill out a paper sponsor form, or visit www.justgiving.com/fundraising/TorCopeland. Tor is not able to take cash donations on the day.

Last chance to apply for grants

DON'T miss your chance to apply for funding for a community project.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council's £332,147 Community Chest is up for grabs for any project that strengthens families and builds communities, or that tackles a health problem.

Suffolk Public Health has also made a further £165,000 available across St Edmundsbury and Forest Charities, community groups and voluntary organisations can all apply for a grant from the pot – but they've got just over a fortnight left to do so, as the deadline for applications is Friday, September 30.

Successful bids will be announced by the end of December, with projects due to start in April next year.

RAM-RAID: The scene outside the Co-Op in Clare on Sunday morning

Read more crime stories online at cambridge-news.co.uk/haverhill

Thieves use JCB digger in raid

RAM-RAIDERS used a stolen digger to rip out a cashpoint machine early on Sunday morning.

Police think the raid at the Co-Op in Market Hill, Clare, could be linked with other similar cases across the Eastern region.

The thieves used a stolen JCB in the raid at around 2.50am before making off in a stolen white Ford Sierra pick-up truck towards the town's Ashen Road. The cashpoint machine was found opened in Nethergate Street, Clare.

The JCB was taken from a farm in the nearby village of Belchamp St Paul, some time after 6.30pm on Saturday.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

The white Ford Sierra pick-up was taken from an address in Heath Road, Wivenhoe, between 11.10pm and 11.20pm on Saturday.

Liz Hind, wife of the landlord at the Bell Hotel across the street from the Co-op, said she woke up on Sunday to see the damage.

"I moved down here from inner-city Liverpool – I feel like I've moved to some crime hotspot," she said.

Residents took to social media to express their disbelief, with one saying: "Sad that our lovely little town has been targeted in this way."

The incident comes after a similar case in St Neots, when a JCB was used to remove a cashpoint machine from a Spar outlet.

The thieves made off in a white pick-up truck, and around £25,000 is estimated to have been stolen.

A spokesperson for Suffolk police said: "Detectives are exploring possibilities of it being linked with other similar regional incidents around ram-raids."

He said there had also been some incidents in Essex.

Call Suffolk police on 101 with information.

Dinner party to aid nurses

I AM a Marie Curie Nurse in Suffolk. I am calling on your readers, family and friends to sign up to host a dinner party with a difference this October.

If anyone is thinking of holding a dinner party, why not consider doing so in aid of Marie Curie? 'Dinner Down Memory Lane' is all about getting together with friends, and sharing good times and memorable moments together – and who doesn't enjoy that?

All the money raised will help Marie Curie Nurses, like me, to provide more care and support to local people living with a terminal illness in their own homes.

The campaign is a great excuse to spend time with your loved ones, whilst supporting Marie Curie Nurses, and I hope the people of Suffolk will sign up to host some fabulous dinner parties.

For more information and to sign up for a free fundraising pack to host your own 'Dinner Down Memory Lane', visit mariecurie.org.uk/dinner for call 0800 716 146.

Brewing up to bake their day

I AM writing to ask your readers to pop their kettles on and roll out their best bakes to support people with epilepsy. Epilepsy Action's Tea Break will see hundreds of people coming together on Friday, October 21, to raise funds for the 600,000 people living with epilepsy in the UK. There are 57,000 people living with epilepsy in the east of England.

The funds raised could help support Epilepsy Action's nationwide network of Coffee and Chat groups.

Offering support and a friendly listening ear, these groups can be a lifeline to people living with epilepsy.

Everyone who signs up to hold a Tea Break gets a handy toolkit, containing everything you need to get started; visit epilepsy.org.uk/teabreak or call 0113 210 8824.

CRIME

Guilty driver told police he hit a deer

home.

When police tried to speak to the 40-year-old father-of-two, Adamec tried to escape from a downstairs window.

Following his arrest, he told police he had hit a deer and denied the charges.

After accessing his mobile phone, police retrieved messages from Adamec to his girlfriend from the night of the accident, saying he was coming to visit her.

His route would take him directly past where the accident took place.

AMPUTEE: Shaun Whiter

VICTIM: Joey Abbs

He originally pleaded not guilty to two charges of causing serious injury by dangerous driving, but later changed his plea. He was sentenced to 40 months imprisonment and will be banned from driving for five years after his release.

His solicitor Asma Khan told the court Adamec was deeply sorry for his actions, and "shows a high level of remorse", prompting the judge to interrupt, saying "well he didn't on the day".

In a pre-prepared statement read to the court by Ms Khan, Adamec said his behaviour was "totally unacceptable".

"Not a day passes when I don't think of the pain of the two gentlemen hurt, their pain will stay with me forever," he said.

"Not a day when I can sleep without thinking about those gentlemen."

When sentencing him, Judge Haworth described Adamec's actions as "calculus in the extreme".

He said: "Your reaction I can only describe as despicable."

"You did absolutely nothing to assist the injured men, and you left them to the mercy of whether they were capable of calling an ambulance, or the chance of another vehicle coming along."

"You weren't to know whether that happened or not."

Club hopes CCTV will stop vandals

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

A RUGBY club is planning to install CCTV cameras after a campaign of vandalism that has lasted more than eight months.

The damage at Haverhill Rugby Club started around Christmas last year.

Now the club has now submitted a grant application to Haverhill Town Council for funding for CCTV cameras in a bid to put an end to the destruction.

Club vice-chairman David Halsey said: "We have had our sponsor boards ripped off repeatedly, graffiti on our storage containers, bricks thrown at our security lights. It's getting to the point where it's ridiculous."

Over the August Bank Holiday weekend, vandals sprayed obscenities on the rugby club building. The club has not yet been able to remove it as it has damaged the brickwork.

"It's not an easy job," said Mr Halsey. "We will probably have to try and do it ourselves to keep costs down."

Another example of vandalism came back in July, when vandals ripped down a goalpost on one of the rugby pitches.

The goalpost has only been repaired thanks to hundreds of pounds of donations from members of the public and hours of work by volunteers.

Mr Halsey said: "We need CCTV and we need funding to help us pay for it to protect the people who use the facilities."

"The damage they do when they are ripping bricks off walls is causing a danger. We have over 80 kids that go up there on a Sunday and we need to protect those children."

DAMAGE: Examples of some of the vandalism done at the rugby club

He said he hoped the CCTV cameras would either act as a deterrent and prevent the vandalism from happening, or would provide evidence that would help the police track down suspects.

If you think you have seen vandalism taking place, call Haverhill police on 101.

Valuable tools stolen from vans

TWO vans have been raided in Haverhill.

One incident took place between 9pm on Wednesday, September 7 and 7am on Thursday, September 8.

Thieves broke into a locked white Ford Transit parked in Cox's Close and stole tools worth an estimated £1,000.

These included drills and jigsaws made by brands including DeWalt, Makita and Bosch.

A second incident took place in Hundon Place between 9.18am and 6.30pm on Friday, September 9.

Thieves removed a tachograph worth £350 from another Ford Transit.

The incidents come after other similar thefts from vans in the town, including one between August 1 and 2 in Squires Court when tools worth £2,120 were stolen.

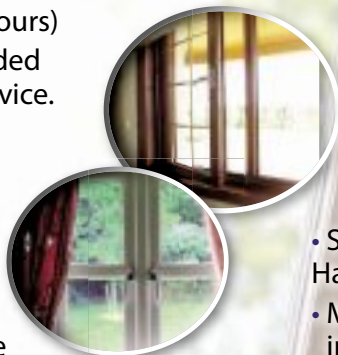

Haverhill Police Inspector Danny Cooper said officers were "keeping an open mind" about whether the incidents were linked.

If you have information call Haverhill police on 101.

ONE HAVERHILL

TAKING OVER: John Mayhew

New ONE chairman to focus on results

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

THE new chairman of community partnership ONE Haverhill says he will make sure the group's work is "outcome-led".

John Mayhew, who runs tax credit advice firm Fiscale and is a member of Haverhill's Chamber of Commerce, was appointed at a meeting yesterday.

Members of the board of ONE Haverhill, which unites representatives from business, health, education, local government and more, had voted for Mr Mayhew in an online poll.

After the meeting he said: "I want to see the core groups having long-term strategic conversations because that determines the context – but I'm going to be pushing them to come up with outcomes that can be realised."

He said that he would encourage the board to be "pretty ruthless" if they felt a group was not getting things done.

He praised the work of outgoing chairwoman Sarah Howard in delivering ONE Haverhill's town centre masterplan and apprenticeship scheme.

Mrs Howard said: "I am so pleased John will be taking over. I think he's a very safe pair of hands."

She said she had chosen to step down because she had achieved her objectives on youth employment and she felt there was a danger of ONE Haverhill becoming too associated with a long-standing chair person.

She is leaving the board entirely and a new businessperson will take up her seat.

MP backs 'wear it pink' day

MATTHEW Hancock, MP for West Suffolk, is encouraging people to "wear it pink" to support women affected by breast cancer.

The MP is backing the fundraiser, on Friday, October 21, and is urging people to add a flash of pink to their wardrobe for the day and donate what they can to raise money for Breast Cancer Now.

Last week Mr Hancock joined fellow MPs in a day of wearing pink to show their support for the breast cancer charity.

He said: "50,000 women are diagnosed with breast cancer each year in the UK, and sadly around 11,500 women and 80 men will lose their lives to the disease. We must put a stop to this. I am very proud to take part in wear it pink."

POLITICS

Devolution wins backing of 53%

MORE than half of people surveyed are in support of devolution in Suffolk.

Ten thousand people were asked for their views on whether Suffolk and Norfolk should be devolved and 53 per cent supported it in principle.

The deal for the two counties under devolution would see £25m pumped into the area for the next 30 years to support economic growth, local infrastructure and jobs.

Another £125m would be provided over the next five years for building new homes, and a £225m transport budget for the next four years would be put in place.

The deal has been put together after initial plans to unite Norfolk and Suffolk with Cambridgeshire met resistance from the latter county.

Fifty-two per cent of people surveyed also supported a mayor, and 58 per cent supported the councils in Suffolk and Norfolk coming together as a combined authority.

NATALIE ROBINSON
Twitter: NatalieR\_CN

The requirement to have a directly-elected mayor has been called into question recently, as new prime minister Theresa May is reportedly considering scrapping it.

From those asked, with 6,080 responses coming from a phone survey by Ipsos-Mori, job creation and young people "earning or learning" were top priorities for the authority.

Andy Wood, independent chair of the East Anglia Devolution Leaders Group, said: "Devolution is about improving people's lives and the places they live."

"It's great that those responding to the consultation recognise that and support more decisions being taken locally. Thank you to everyone who took the time to respond."

"Leaders are committed to building on all the success and positives of the two counties to make Norfolk and Suffolk as successful as possible for the future."

Ipsos-Mori also surveyed 250 businesses across the two counties.

Among businesses, 54 per cent supported the principle of devolution and 59 per cent supported the Norfolk and Suffolk' councils joining together.

However, only 47 per cent of businesses supported the idea of a directly-elected mayor, with 27 per cent against it.

The responses will now be reported to the Secretary of State.

Devolution for the counties will only progress if all the local councils and the local enterprise partnerships endorse the proposed deal in June.

Girls Night Out raises £250,000 for hospice

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

THOUSANDS of women turned out in pyjamas and bunny ears to raise money for a local charity on Saturday.

The Girls Night Out walk is estimated to have raised around £250,000 for St Nicholas Hospice Care, which runs the Burton Centre in Haverhill's Camps Road.

A record-breaking 2,370 women took part in the night-time wander, including many from the Haverhill area.

The event sees women choose to walk either 6 or 11.2 miles after dark around Bury St Edmunds.

Walkers included sisters Fiona, Jessy and Katie Hardwicke from Haverhill.

Fiona said: "We have all enjoyed it so much. I can't believe we have all done 11-plus miles. I think we are all looking forward to a hot drink and a soak in the bath but it has been brilliant."

"I think it really brought it home to us why we were doing it when we arrived at the hospice, it was such an emotional experience."

The walkers were all serenaded across the finish line by the Rock Vox choir, and more 350 volunteers and marshals were on hand throughout the event, as well as emergency services and airmen from the USAF and RAF.

Organiser Jenny Baskett said: "I really cannot put into words just how wonderful this year's Girls Night Out has been. Every year I think it cannot possibly get any bigger or better, but each year it does."

The event comes as the hospice launches two new support groups at the Burton Centre.

The Open House peer support group is taking place every Tuesday at 10am.

Meanwhile, the men's group takes place at 2.45pm every other Monday, with the next one on Monday, September 19.

PLANNING

Flood fears over 55-home site

A PLANNED development of 55 homes could leave locals knee-deep in floodwater, councillors say.

The development, on Barlow Road in Linton, just off the A1307, was approved by South Cambridgeshire District Council's planning committee last week.

But Linton parish councillors say the 55 houses near the River Granta could leave homes vulnerable to flooding.

Linton has previously suffered significant floods.

In 2001, the village flooded so badly that many of its shops were out of action for months as they repaired the damage. Flooding occurred again in 2014, prompting the village to invest in flood defences in 2015.

Now they have fears that the new development will reduce surface water absorption and affect the floodplain, leaving villagers vulnerable to flooding again.

HANNAH MIRSKY
and JOSH THOMAS

Parish councillor Enid Bald said: "Linton has been working really hard to put in flood defences to improve the village. We know it has worked and had a positive effect on water levels. The village flooded in 2014. We had the same water levels in 2016 and we did not flood. That is all going to be put at risk by this."

Linton district councillor John Batchelor, who is on the planning committee voted against the application. He said: "I am appalled at it."

He said that policies normally in place to protect Linton from having more than 30 houses built on a single development had not been taken into account, due to government emphasis on hitting housing targets.

But vice-chair of the planning committee Kevin Cuf-fley, who voted in favour of the application, said all major objections, including flooding, had received adequate responses.

He said the committee had received a report from Anglian Water saying its systems could cope with the water levels, and landscaping would mean it would not be an unattractive addition to the village.

He added: "We have got a massive housing shortage in the area."

A spokesperson for Bidwells, the agents for the applicants, said: "The application received a resolution to grant outline planning permission from the planning committee based on the technical information submitted in support, which included a comprehensive flood risk assessment."

NEW LOOK:
Haverhill
Rovers U7 Reds
in their kit

Rock band sponsors new soccer kit

A TEAM of aspiring footballers have had their new Barcelona-inspired kit sponsored by a rock band.

Haverhill Rovers U7 Reds were presented with the new kit on Sunday. The kit has been sponsored by The Subways, whose second album All or Nothing hit number 17 in the UK charts.

Team coach Ollie Carter used to play in a band at the same venue as The Subways, and kept in touch with frontman Billy Lunn. It was through this connection that Billy offered to sponsor a new kit for the young team.

Coach Ollie said: "It's just amazing they would take the time to do that for us."

Sturmer Fayre – Sunday 18th September 12-5

At Sturmer Hall, Church Walk, CB9 7XD

Fun for all to be had at fair

ADVERTISEMENT FEATURE

STURMER Fayre is to be held in the prestigious grounds of Sturmer Hall on Sunday, September 18. This will be the first time the fayre has been held in 20 years.

The event is intended as a social occasion for residents of the village and the surrounding area, and will provide a showcase for local groups and businesses while helping to raise funds to support worthy causes that will benefit the community as a whole.

There will be a wide range of craft stalls and attractions on the day to interest all age groups and provide an afternoon of fun for all the family.

Event highlights include an art exhibition from Kedington Art Group, antique valuations from Little Bradley, a fun dog show from Waterhall Kennels, live music from various artists and a dance performance by Lisa Mason's Dance Studio.

On the food and drink front, the village's Red Lion is operating a beer tent, pizzas will be served by Fired Up Pizza from its mobile oven, and the all-important tea and cakes will be served on the terrace.

Meanwhile, children will be well taken care of by a performing magician and vendors selling ice cream, hot dogs and candy floss.

Proceeds from the fayre will be used primarily to fund the development of a community website, with any residual funds earmarked for other worthy causes such as local charities.

The fayre opens at noon and closes at 5pm; entry is free.

Address: Sturmer Hall, Church Walk, Sturmer CB9 7XD.

COMMUNITY

Group in danger of closing down

A RESIDENTS' association that has been campaigning on behalf of local people for more than 20 years is set to fold if no new members can be found.

The committee of Haverhill-based Chalkstone Tenants' and Residents' Association (CATRA) took the decision at a meeting last Wednesday.

The committee of older people decided it was not able to continue its work without younger members.

CATRA still has nearly £1,000 in the bank, which committee members hope could be put towards something to help the community on the Chalkstone Estate.

Secretary Ernie Goody said he had been a member of the association for 20 years and it had been running for longer than that.

The association had campaigned for a children's play park on the Chalkstone Estate and a skate park which was ultimately built in the town's Howe Road.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

Mr Goody, who has lived on the Chalkstone Estate since 1974, said about the group's achievements: "It's the unseen stuff like getting people's trees cut back, things like getting people's disabled parking bays painted."

But now the committee says there are no younger people willing to join the association and champion residents.

Mr Goody said: "There are a lot of people in multiple occupancy homes and they've got no sense of belonging."

He said that now residents on the Chalkstone Estate could only have the town council to go to for help.

Mr Goody urged residents to get involved in CATRA before it was too late, saying: "It's for people who are interested in the area, and want to see things improved, and want to campaign for that."

But if CATRA cannot be saved, then the committee is looking to donate its money to a good cause that would benefit the people of the Chalkstone Estate.

This could be any kind of project, organisation or group that exists to improve the lives of residents on the estate – preferably one without political or religious affiliations.

If you would like to join CATRA or have a community project that would benefit from its fund, contact Mr Goody on erniegoody@msn.com, or call him on (01440) 763 381.

Puppets performance based on poem

Little Angel Theatre performs an entrancing, and funny, puppetry version of We're Going on a Bear Hunt at Haverhill Arts Centre on Wednesday and Thursday, October 5 and 6, at 4pm.

The show, which has been especially created for younger children, is based on Michael Rosen's poem about a family who travel through a swooshy grassy bank, wade through a cold river, squelch over some oozy mud, stumble into the dark forest and then peer into a cave.

Will they find the bear they are looking for? The music and lyrics for this production were created by renowned singer-songwriter Barb Jungr.

It has been directed by Peter Glanville who is well known for his productions for children. The show is suitable for everybody over the age of two, and running time is around 45 minutes.

Tickets are £5 and available from the box office on (01440) 714140 or through www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

Children's puppetry will be also on show on October 27, with The Musicians of Bremen, about abandoned toys who try their luck as musicians.

■ Friday, September 16 – Friday, September 23

■ Hannah Horton and John Etheridge collaborate again at The All That Jazz Club tomorrow. They have joined forces at previous jazz evenings at the arts centre to great acclaim and applause and this date promises to be just as popular. Hannah and her quartet are regulars at the arts centre but have performed up and down the country and guitarist John Etheridge has played with such icons as Stephane Grappelli and Yehudi Menuhin.

■ If you fancy a spot of intellectual stimulation this week (and for the next 10) Dr Roger Simpson is your man. On Wednesday, September 21, he begins his lecture series Is Modernism Art? He asks such questions as has art always been a luxury stuck away in art museums, or is it something profoundly more important? Is a Canadian artist setting light to a Volkswagen Beetle full of live rats, paid for by a grant from the Canada Council – this really happened – Art with a capital A or a something beginning with a capital C? Decide for yourself.

■ Thursday, September 22, sees the NT Live broadcast of The Threepenny Opera starring Rory Kinnear as a dodgy beggary boss Mr Peachum. It's a darkly comic new take on Brecht and Weill's raucous musical which in turn was adapted from The Beggar's Opera. London scrubs up for the coronation. The thieves are on the make and the police cutting deals to keep it all out of sight. Mr and Mrs Peachum are looking forward to a bumper day but their daughter didn't come home last night and it's all about to kick off...

■ Stand-up Shappi Khorsandi (+ support) comes to the arts centre on Friday, September 23, with her show Oh My Country! which is a love letter to her adopted land and covers everything from Morris dancing to Morrissey. Her reputation for whip-crack jokes and a razor sharp wit have stood her in good stead in Haverhill as tickets have all but sold out. The arts centre may be able to release extra seats this week so call the box office to enquire.

■ There's a musical tribute to the music of Neil Sedaka and Howie

STAND-UP: The arts centre may be releasing extra seats this week for Shappi Khorsandi

Greenfield on Saturday, September 24 with Oh! Carol. From their humble beginnings in Brooklyn to the dizzying heights of their success in the 50s & 60s the songwriting genius of Neil Sedaka and Howard Greenfield can be described as one of the most successful partnerships of all time. Together they were responsible for such hits as Calendar Girl, Happy Birthday Sweet Sixteen, Breaking Up Is Hard To Do, Amarillo, Stupid Cupid, The Diary, Laughter in the Rain and Oh! Carol, all of which you can hear on the night.

■ Film-wise this week the arts centre has Elvis and Nixon (15), Born to be Blue (15) and Chicklit (15). On Monday, September 19, at 7.30pm, find out more about one of the most iconic images of the 20th century.

On a December morning in 1970, the King of Rock 'n Roll showed up on the lawn of the White House, as you do, and demanded a meeting with The Big Man. Nixon, knowing a bit of good publicity when it arrives in his front garden, naturally agrees, and the rest is what is commonly known as history. There's more re-imaginings of the lives of music-men as Ethan Hawke plays jazz trumpeter Chet Baker in Born to be Blue. Chet had a 'complicated' relationship with drink, drugs and life in general and his demons often got the better of him. Bad for him but good for film makers 60 years later. The subject matter is a little lighter – the clue is in the name – with Chicklit; a group of aging pub regulars in North Norfolk decide to raise funds for their beloved boozer by ghost-writing a racy novel in the style of Fifty Shades of Grey. Cue the farce!

■ Up and coming events include an RSC live broadcast, Cymbeline (Wednesday, September 28) Forbidden Nights (sold out) and We're Going on a Bear Hunt (Wednesday and Thursday, October 5 & 6) a charming adaptation of the Michael Rosen poem by Little Angel Theatre.

FIRST DRIVE

Kia Optima PHEV

WE have become accustomed to the style and refinement of the Optima saloon and more recently the Optima Sportswagon estate, but now Kia has introduced the Optima PHEV (Plug-in Hybrid Electric Vehicle).

Priced from £31,495 which includes the Government's £2,500 plug-in car grant, the latest model can achieve up to 33 miles of all-electric driving, boasts fuel economy up to 176.6mpg and has carbon emissions of just 37g/km.

And for business drivers those figures equate to just seven per cent benefit-in-kind tax in 2016-17.

The Optima PHEV cleverly combines a 154bhp 2.0-litre petrol engine with a 50kW (67bhp) electric motor and when they work in tandem they can generate 202bhp and 375Nm of grunt.

The batteries are neatly integrated behind the rear seat and in the spare wheel well which, along with a 15-litre reduction in the car's fuel tank capacity, means the Optima PHEV still boasts a generous boot size of 307 litres – the standard Optima offers 510 litres.

The car looks elegant and dynamic from any angle thanks to 17-inch alloys, LED daytime running lights and headlights, plus a package of aerodynamic and styling changes that help distinguish it from the standard saloon. These include an all-new active air flap grille which automatically closes when the engine cooling requirements are at their lowest so allowing air to pass more efficiently around the car.

Other distinguishing features are blue-tinted headlights and chrome enhancements with a metallic blue finish on the lower front air grille, the tiger-nose main grille and the side sills.

There is 'ECO plug-in' badging on the front wings and the recharging port is positioned in the left front wing.

Inside the smartly-styled cabin and it's impossible not to be impressed with creature comforts like the faux leather seats with powered adjustment, eight-inch colour touchscreen navigation system with reversing camera, front and rear parking sensors, dual zone air conditioning, cruise control with speed limiter, a Harman Kardon 10-speaker sound system, wireless smartphone charger and plenty more.

Exclusive to this particular Optima PHEV is a series of menus that display data regarding the car's EV range, nearby charging stations and energy usage based on driving style.

The Optima PHEV can be charged from empty in about three hours, but there are many ways of increasing battery charge levels on the move such as through regenerative braking.

The car also boasts a remarkable Heating Ventilation Air Conditioning system, first seen in the Kia Soul EV, which allows only the driver's side of the car to be cooled when the other seats are unoccupied.

The Optima PHEV can sprint to 60mph from a standing start in 9.1 seconds, tops out at 121mph and features the economy figures mentioned above. It can achieve up to 33 miles of pure electric driving and that's at speeds up to 75mph.

Add in the comprehensive list of safety specifications and the latest arrival to the ever-growing Optima line-up is a very welcome addition that will certainly tick all the right boxes when it comes to business cars.

ELEGANT: 5008 is so practical too

Peugeot's new 5008 just got seven seats

THE all-new Peugeot 5008 breaks new ground as a large seven-seater SUV in the C segment.

The new contender includes the latest digital version of the outstanding Peugeot i-Cockpit, Efficient Modular Platform 2 (EMP2), and a plethora of high-tech features that enhance comfort and safety. Behind the elegant, dynamic design lies a superbly practical vehicle.

With seven seats, the new Peugeot 5008 is the first SUV to offer modularity on a par with that of the best people-carriers. A range of powerful, efficient engines and designs – including sporty GT Line and GT versions – is available for the all-new Peugeot 5008 SUV, to be unveiled at the next 2016 Paris Motor Show in September before its launch in spring 2017.

The new Discovery is so Evoque-ative!

LAND Rover has released the first images of the new Discovery ahead of the seven-seat 4x4's premiere at the Paris Motor Show later this month.

The initial shots only show the front of the car, but hint at bodywork inspired by the existing Range Rover Sport and the smaller Discovery Sport, itself an evolution of the Range Rover Evoque design language.

The previously vertical front seems to have been rounded off, while the grille has become thinner and the headlights narrower, à la Evoque. Lower down, there's a wide, muscular set of wheel arches and a pronounced bumper.

Vertical air intakes sit ahead of the front wheels and the wide lower grille is protected by a large front skid plate.

It is thought that the rest of the car continues to take aspects of its styling from the Discovery's stablemates, although the signature 'step' in the old Discovery's roofline is expected to remain, along with the asymmetrical split tailgate.

NEW DISCOVERY: Edges have been rounded off

Land Rover has not confirmed any details of the 2017 Discovery, but the company has said that the vehicle will be "created with absolute versatility, capability and technology like no other".

Jaguar Land Rover's much-improved InControl touchscreen infotainment system seems likely to feature, along with several convenience and off-road-centric apps.

Power is expected to come predominantly from the same

3.0-litre V6 diesel engine found in the existing Discovery and Range Rover Sport, although a 2.0-litre diesel may power entry-level models.

Gerry McGovern, Land Rover's chief design officer, said: "New Discovery redefines the large SUV. Land Rover's design and engineering teams have revolutionised the Discovery DNA to create a highly desirable, extremely versatile and hugely capable premium SUV."

Kodiaq unveil

KODIAQ: 'Strong as a bear'

THE new Skoda Kodiaq SUV has finally been unveiled at a glitzy ceremony in the German capital of Berlin.

The Kodiaq features Superb-style sharp creases and angular lights, as well as the brand's trademark vertically-barred grille.

Inside, the SUV boasts a best-in-class seats-down luggage bay of 2,065 litres, which shrinks to 720 litres with the second row upright. Higher-spec cars will also be offered with seven seats.

A new infotainment system and in-car communication system are key features, as well as a special off-road display and optional wireless hotspot.

Driver assistance gizmos include a 360-degree top-down manoeuvring camera and a trailer assistance system, which takes over the steering when reversing a trailer or caravan.

At launch, the engine range will consist of two diesels and three petrols, with capacities from 1.4 and 2.0 litres. The most economical of the five is the 148bhp diesel, which returns 56.5mpg and 131g/km.

Skoda's CEO, Bernhard Maier, said: "Our new addition to the Skoda model range is truly as strong as a bear."

Joshua cuts a Dash with impressive closed show

Tennis

JOSHUA Dashwood was the star of the show as he won all three of his events at Haverhill Tennis Club's annual closed event.

He beat Gratz Senn 6-0, 6-2 in a reversal of last year's men's singles for an impressive win.

He then partnered Tom Marsh to overcome Brenton Matthews and Ross Tobin 7-5, 6-3 in the men's doubles, in what was one of the day's best matches.

And Dashwood completed his hat-trick by winning the mixed doubles 6-4, 6-3 alongside Keri Tobin against Abi Cartwright-Thomas and Adam Fowle.

Other winners were Danielle Miller, Matthews, Andreas Kitsis, Cartwright-Thomas and sisters Sarah and Rachel Jeffs.

CLOSED STARS: The majority of the finalists line up at Haverhill Tennis Club's annual closed event

Athletics

GREAT EFFORT: Joanne Vickery, Teresa Franklin and Sandra Hiscox

Six of the best at Great North Run

SIX Haverhill Running Club members took part in the world's biggest half marathon, the Great North Run.

Cherylyn Lane, Carol Le Roy Tickner, Joanne Vickery, Teresa Franklin, Sandra Hiscox and Sill Clay all made the 500-mile round trip to tackle the 13.1-mile course.

Closer to home, Yusuf Firat was the first Haverhill finisher at the Cambridge 10K in 41min 39sec.

Lee Brown clocked 42 minutes flat, Paul Sherrit and Karian Hunt finished strongly and Charlotte Stanley came home in 59.53.

TEAM SPIRIT: Haverhill Ladies at the Sudbury tournament

Haverhill enjoy a birthday bash

HAVERHILL Ladies won their division and came fourth overall at the Sudbury League's 50th birthday tournament.

Nine teams took part and it was a good achievement for Haverhill's team of mixed ages and abilities.

Rovers defeated at home by Brantham

HAVERHILL Rovers suffered a 1-0 defeat at home to Brantham in the Thurlo Nunn League, Premier Division.

Oliver Mann and Sean Gunn went close for the visitors around the half-hour mark, while Danny Hill forced a decent save from the Brantham keeper Jack Spurling just before half time.

The only goal of the game came on 53 minutes when a mix-up between the Rovers defence and keeper Charlie Turner allowed Gunn to roll the ball into the net from a wide position.

Football

Luke Haines had a 30-yard effort pushed over by Spurling and Ross Elkins' 15-yard volley from Haines' free kick was headed over by a defender, but the hosts could not find an equaliser.

Haverhill Borough continued their unbeaten start to the Thurlo Nunn League, First Division season with a 3-1 win at Needham Market reserves last Saturday.

Borough took just four minutes to get off the mark through Ryan Phillips' flick after good work by Matt Staines.

Market levelled on 17 minutes through Santo Sarro-Haire's fine individual goal and it needed good stops by Graham Smith from Cory Gittens, George Exworth and Ben Frost to keep the visitors in it.

But Phillips notched his second with a close-range finish before the break after being picked out by Craig Pruden.

Staines was denied three times by Tyler Hursey early in the second half and Phillips saw a strike, following a mazy run, well held by the home keeper.

However, Owen Thompson killed the game off eight minutes from time with a 25-yard strike into the top corner.

And Borough followed it up by beating Coggeshall 3-0 in their first game on the new 3G pitch at the New Croft on Tuesday.

Jarid Robson slid the ball home from Scott Lodge's pass for the opener and netted his second after good work by Phillips.

Phillips rounded things off with a volley in stoppage time.

Smiles all round after storming Stearn success

HAVERHILL Golf Club's ladies have reached the final of The Stearn.

The team took on Offord Park at Felixtowe in the semi-finals and triumphed convincingly.

Lyn Fish, Mandy Williamson, Sally Price, Anna Fairhead, Mary Sail and Linda Alexander all played well to set up a showdown with Felixstowe at Halesworth on October 3.

Golf

Co-ordinator Doreen Darbey also put in plenty of hard work for the cause.

Josh Hulyer and James Iron won the junior foursomes competition. The pair came out on top with a nett score of 75.

There were more than 40 competitors in the Junior Open, which was sponsored by Hackett Griffey.

Habeel Islam won the boys' scratch with gross 71, Kieran Sorrell took the boys' nett with 65 and Georgia Parker landed the girls' nett with 68.

There was a Haverhill victor in the girls' scratch in the form of Fiona Stokes, who scored 76.

Saffron Walden's Alexandra Sparrow took the honours in the stableford competition thanks to a score of 35 points.

The 10-hole tournament for younger players was won by Jack Sparrow, also from Saffron Walden, as he edged out Haverhill's Ellis Kerr on countback after both boys scored 59.
